Afterburner is the United States Air Force band of Liberty's high energy rock band. The seven member group brings an explosive blend of blues, rock, and R&B to their dynamic stage shows. The members of this versatile group are all active duty military and are based out of Hanscom Air Force base, Massachusetts. They have appeared on national TV, headlined major festivals, and opened for artists such as Charlie Daniels, The Commodores, The Subdudes, The Fabulous Thunderbirds and Lee Ann Womack. The group also performs countless concerts each year throughout New England, New York and New Jersey, as well as performing overseas for deployed servicemen.

The Air Force is a values-based organization guided by our core values: Integrity, Service Before Self, and Excellence In All We Do. As an Expeditionary Aerospace Force, our people stand ready to deploy combat power around the globe at a moment's notice to protect America's interest.
