I have no problem with the license especially since they are having a professional bar tender.

Lisa,

The TIPS certified bartender takes care of one of my concerns. Having 350 attendees though means that there is very likely to be a parking issue. I believe that the Board of Selectmen should consider having one or two detail officers there for the event to control parking problems. The organizers should contact Det. Prehl to work out the number of officers that may be required to handle the event.

Regards,

Frank J. Widmayer III
Chief of Police
