Steve, Mike,

Please add to the 8/11 BOS Consent Agenda the proposed appointment of John Watlington to the Land Stewardship Committee. I am attaching for the BOS packet his application materials, including the VCC referral to the BOS for further consideration. I have spoken with Mr. Watlington by phone, and also received feedback from LSC chairman Jim Snyder-Grant. Thanks. Janet

VCC Recommendation for John Watlington

The Volunteer Coordinating Committee met June 23, 2014 and interviewed John Watlington for a position on the Land Steward Committee He has lived in Acton for 14 years and has a Bachelors and a Masters degree. He is very interested in the conservation lands and has attended meetings of the LSC. He spends considerable time walking the trails and conservation lands in Acton. He attends Town Meeting. He has no apparent conflict of interest, has the time to commit to the work of this committee and can generally make meetings.

It was moved and seconded to forward John Watlington for further consideration for the Land Steward Committee. It was voted and passed unanimously.
