I interviewed Karen Troy for COD: high recommendation.

I interviewed Bharat Shah for EDC: high recommendation.

I more-than-interviewed Aneil Tripathy for TAC: high recommendation.

I plan to talk more to Kevin Antonelli tomorrow. I am not sure yet whether Karen or Kevin will be the next COD member but both will plan on attending meetings.

I have yet to formally interview Kevin.

Please let me know next steps for these people or at least let them know.

Thanks for all your work. It is exciting seeing such talented people join the volunteer force in Acton.

VCC Recommendation for Karen Troy

The Volunteer Coordinating Committee met July 14, 2014 and interviewed Karen Troy for a position on the Commission on Disabilities. She is currently unemployed and has a BA in English and an MS in Management. She has lived in Acton for 26 years. Her field of expertise is computers but is currently disabled with back pain. She would like to give something back to the community and the COD interests her as a person with a hidden disability. She has attended a meeting of the COD and attends Town Meetings albeit irregularly. She also has experience with the ADA as an employer. She has no apparent conflict of interest.

We voted to recommend her for further consideration.

hi, Charlie, someone, Karen troy, answered our ad for associate member. we are meeting her next week. she says she has already filled out application. Let me know if you got it, and if there are any problems I can straighten out I know the VCC is short handed, but about how long will it take to vet her and pass on to BOS?

the seat is officially open, as we let Wen Li's reassignment lapse so that this new person start with her own fresh term.

you haven't received any other applications for us, have you?
