VOLUNTEER COORDINATING COMMITTEE

On Nov. 24, 2003 The Volunteer Coordinating Committee interviewed James Snyder-Grant,

James Snyder-Grant is the current chair of the Acton Land Stewardship sub committee since September 2003. Andy Magee, Chairman of the Conservation Commission remembered that the Board of Selectmen requested that any chairman of the Land Stewardship sub committee be an Associate Member of the Conservation Committee.

It is the understanding of the Volunteer Coordinating Committee that there are already three Associate Members of the Conservation Commission. We don't believe there can be four. We now know there is an opening for an Associate member.

The Volunteer Coordinating Committee recommend James Snyder-Grant as an Associate member of the Conservation Commission with a 1 year term ending June 30, 2004.
