Re: Hearing for The Local Table

I am currently scheduled to appear at the town hall on Monday evening, September 28, to speak to the Board of Selectman regarding an alleged over serving of alcohol to a customer at The Local Table in the Spring of this year.

I closed The Local Table at the end of July and initially thought I would re-open in September. For business reasons, that has not occurred.

The Local Table will remain closed permanently. Due to this situation, I recognize that your valuable time may be allocated to other matters on Monday evening. I wanted to inform you of this so that you can remove this issue from the evening's agenda.

If there is any need to contact me or to pursue this matter further, please do not hesitate to contact me.
