

The Acton Volunteer Coordinating Committee met March 14,2016 and interviewed Timothy McKinnon for a position on the Conservation Commission. He was active as a volunteer in Vermont where he previously lived. Tom Tidman has met with him and recommended him for this commission. Owns waterfront property in Acton and other real estate properties in other towns. Has presented at a hearing before the CC to build a dock on grassy Pond, but has also attended a meeting. He doesn't feel there is a conflict of interest being a property owner if a situation comes up he would recuse himself from voting. He is aware of the process of obtaining permits and the duties of members on this Commission.

Mr McKinnon is planning to attend the meeting this Wednesday.

Four recommended him and one person opposed for further consideration on this commission.
