

C-11 Trailhead Building - basic installation

M-54 composter base is set and secured to concrete pads.

Hole is back-filled and surrounding soil is tamped.

Pre-constructed C-11 unit is lowered and secured onto M-54 base.

Completed unit with transitional platform.

Self-Contained Recycling Composting Toilet

1. Traditional 3-Tab Organic Asphalt Shingles
2. Ventilation Fan, AC or DC
3. Solar Panel Generating Electricity
4. Handicapped Toilet
5. Grab Bars
6. Insulspan Structural Wall Panels
7. Skid-Resistant Floor
8. Translucent Lexan Window
9. Composting Chamber
10. Maintenance Area
11. Maintenance Access Lid
12. Exterior Grade Electroplated Steel Door

Model C-11

The Clivus Model C11 trailhead restroom is a heavy duty building with a self-contained composting waste treatment system. There is no discharge of waste or pollution, site disturbance is limited to the footprint of the building, and the ventilation fan can be operated with solar power if necessary. These units are all ADA accessible and can be placed in remote areas.

clivus new england
incorporated