Mr. Scott Hayes, project engineer of Foresite Engineering Associates, Inc., Mr. Michael Katin, attorney for the applicant, and the applicant, Centennial Homes, LLC (Mr. Paul Gaboury and Glenn Kaufman) were present.

Mr. Hayes stated the following:

- The plan proposes a three (3) lot subdivision, one for the existing single family dwelling.
- The proposed street name is Beacon Court.
- The property is on the cultural resources list. The proposed demolition of the barn was before the Historical Commission. It is now in the 12 month delay period.
- The proposed houses will be in the wooded area in the rear of the property.
- The proposed porous pavement is a method of dealing with storm water. There will be minimal clearing to construct the roadway.
- There are wetlands to the east of the property. There is a December 1 meeting with the Conservation Commission.
- He cannot address all staff concerns/comments, but will for the public hearing continuation.

Mr. William Klauer of the Historical Commission confirmed that the application to demolish the barn was before the HC in the summer.

Members of the public had the following comments/questions:

- How much land will be cleared? Applicant: +/-20,000.
- Would like to see as many trees preserved as possible.
- Would like to see the barn saved; pretty, charm, historic feel.
- Proposed Lot 2 house and construction is near leaching field on abutting lot, which is only 10' feet from the lot line. Concern that field be damaged during construction.
- There is no storm water impact reported for areas to the north. Applicant: From their calculations, there is no drainage towards the north.
- The area is extremely wet. The water table has risen over the years. A large pond has started to form a vernal pool.
- New homes will have water issues in the future but where will they drain it to?
- Fire Department had to pump neighbor's basement. Very worried of the water run off.
- Neighbor stated many years ago, developer tried to lower the road but hit ledge; how can they do it when it was a problem then.
- Endangered species on the property.
- More houses are creating more impact to the stormwater issue.

Mr. Ron Rose, Acton Historic District Commission member, stated he would like to comment even the property is not within the district.

Mr. Katin objected that the Historic District Commission does not have jurisdiction.

Mr. Bartl stated there is no legal jeopardy for the Planning Board for listening to Mr. Rose.

Mr. Rose stated that the barn is a historical building; the goal is to preserve the rural historical character and keep character of the neighborhood; would like to see trees between the houses.

Board members asked and commented as follows:

- Does stormwater leave the site in a northerly direction? Applicant: No.
- Check line of sight distance of intersection at Robbins Street. Applicant: Will re-measure.
- Who will be responsible for the driveway maintenance? Applicant: It will be private and it will be the homeowner's responsibility. There will be a maintenance agreement.
- Will there be a raised septic system? Applicant: Yes, raised about 10"-25".
- Why use porous pavement? Applicant: Small design is good candidate for this application.
- Board members expressed concern with the porous pavement. If it clogs up, it won't be seen immediately. It will only work as long as it is maintained. Applicant: There will be a power vacuum to remove debris and clean.
- Will there be a sidewalk installed or contribution given to the sidewalk fund? Applicant: Donation to the sidewalk contribution fund.

Board members discussed having a site walk. Mr. Bettez and Ms. Montella agreed to go.

Mr. Chin stated he just realized he could have a conflict of interest with Mr. Michael Katin's office and might have to recuse himself. Mr. Chin will contact the State Ethics Commission Office.
