

The Acton Volunteer Coordinating Committee met March 14, 2016 and interviewed Jennifer Stolz for a position on the Conservation Committee. She is a Biologist and Environmental Manager. She comes recommended by Tom Tidman. She has 15 years of experience as a wildlife biologist, she has not attended a meeting but will attend one before being appointed, however has met with Tom Tidman.

She is familiar with wetlands and hydrology as well as soil. She has walked a lot of the conservation lands as well as walking with Tom on several sites.

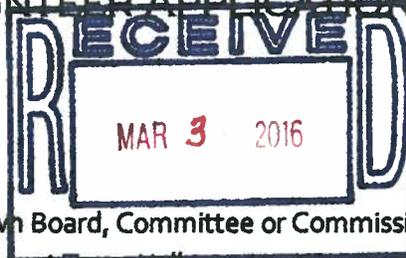

We feel she would be an excellent member for this commission and voted to forward her name for further consideration.
